Pinelake H³ Hash #1119

November 1, 2008

Hare: Pigwinkle Start: In, On, or Around that Mountain of Stone

Well what can I say, we started like any normal hash. It was a beautiful fall day and we all had passing thoughts of how the Georgia Bull Dogs would do (turned out to be a huge bummer.) Afterbirth took our money and Ballerina Booty Boy brought the beer. We were all crushed to find out that there was no "Paulie Girl" but we managed. We were told by the hare that it would be a sweet not too long trail. Well.... Hares lie, it was at least 7 miles, close to two hours on trail. Surley Temple and Square Meat were the FRB'S. Afterbirth was probably DFL – even if he wasn't, he should have been, right?

Ohh about the trail, I don't think I have ever seen so many Hawthorne bushes- it was brutal! We had to cross over a chain link fence 8 to 10 feet tall. Lucky for us, there was a huge pine tree that had fallen on the fence. The problem was that the fence did not collapse, so we had to drop to the ground any way we could. Poor Anal Fissure cut his hand on the fence and was loosing blood the rest of the trail. The hare had some really squirrely trail marks, causing Afterbirth and Spread Eagle to become quite lost, but somehow Spread made it in just before Afterbirth. Pissticide wound up bimboing, but we think it suits him. Little Willy, as usual, was attracting all of the yellow jackets who really loved the cheese dip. Pink Slit and Royal Fuck commented the trail was simply marvelous – damn over-achievers. The highlight of the ending was the naming of our fifth timer... formerly Just Erin will be known from this day forward as Rasta Twat. As a special surprise Just Michael brought a bushel of fresh oysters from Appalachicola. THEY WERE GREAT!! They had a grill set up and we had chilled on the half shell as well as roasted oysters. It was really great, wish you had been there. ON-ON!
