Hare: Show-Ur-Anus

Somewhere near Smyrna...

For more EXACT trail commentary, see Show-Ur-Anus... I'm sure he'll be glad to give you the play by play by play by play... ☺

The pack took off from the parking lot... and there was more road... and more road... Lefty Loosey, Weiner Schlutzel, and myself decided that we'd follow SOB rules (uphill running bad) and immediately took control of the DFL position. We were exhilarated to be ON TRAIL AND DFL at the same time We finally got off the road and onto the parking lot of the old Johnson Ferry tube/boat put-in point... when Lady Dewalt, who came late to the start, was out to challenge our position. Never fear, we aren't going to let THAT happen. We are women hear us roar! We scared him off into the woods right outside the old parking area so we reclaim the coveted DFL position.

Competition for DFL continued as Wee Little Bit, tired from a 40-mile bike ride (overachiever) decided to hang back. We tried to shake him but Bit was determined to share in our DFL glory... or unlike Dewalt, doesn't scare as easy. The hare took us through but mosquito infested woods which led us out into a contemporary housing neighborhood. This is where our SOB methodology paid off.

We took break and strolled up and up and up the long neighborhood hills. Then behind an apartment complex we were led back into the woods on to some well-defined bike trail which led to the on-in where we the Dead F*cking Luscious proudly took our place of honor on the podium (or middle of the bike trail or condom disposal area).

Your scribe Size Doesn't Matter came out of retirement to run the circle (thanks to Boner, Hired Hand and company for the Black Sheep Campout rendition of No Pants, More Beer and many other fine tunes... too bad PMS wasn't there too!)

The following hashers were honored:

Boner (for mug hunting)
Just Nick and Just Noelani (times 4)
Pull it Out and Sniff and Deposit Slit (Bimbos)
Lady Dewalt (for being late and car hashing the beginning of the trail)
Snail Trail (hungover)
One Ball (because ST was hungover)
Yoron and Oops were FRB
Wee Little Bit and Oakie Pokie Chicken Chokie (way too long)
Kap'n Krash - childless and FRB
Your aforementioned DFL's: SDM, Wee Little Bit, Lefty Loosey, Weiner Schlutzel

I think everyone else got a lottery down-down:

Hired Hand
Baron Von Bla Bla Bla
Anal Fissure
Bone Hole
Davey Crochet

The on-after was held at Tiajana Joes and I don't remember anything after those giant margaritas. On out! SDM
